

Alexandra E Frezer

913 NW 3rd Ave, Gainesville, 32601-5158 United States
(504)432-8444 | alexred44@ufl.edu

EDUCATION

University of Florida

Bachelor, Environmental Management
with a minor in Soil & Water Science

Gainesville
Fall 2018

EXPERIENCE

University of Florida

Research Assistant for the Blueberry Breeding Lab

Gainesville, FL
December 2018 - Present

- Assisting with field data collection on various projects
- Analyzing introgression of species
- Participating in molecular analysis
- Aided in the management of the field team

University of Florida

Research Assistant for White Clover Cover Crop Lab

Gainesville, FL
September 2018 - December 2018

- Performed routine maintenance in field
- Collected and documented samples
- Maintained data updates
- Successfully operated transportation vehicle

Possum Hollow Farms

Farm Intern

Alachua, FL
October 2017 - June 2018

- Executed efficient sowing and planting routines by hand
- Kept up with the cultivation of vegetables
- Worked with multiple irrigation systems
- Gained the experience and safety techniques that come with machinery including tractors

Aramark

Environmental Management Intern at Olympic National Park

Port Angeles, WA
May 2017 - August 2017

- Supported and executed the Environmental Management System for eight departments and three locations
- Upheld and maintained ISO 14001:2004 certification
- Developed and submitted composting project proposal to corporate and NPS superiors
- Developed action plans with defined targets, cost/benefits, outcomes, and timeline of compilations

VOLUNTEERING

Siembra Farms

As a farm laborer, personally structured an unsupervised work day to further long-term, goal-oriented projects with performance measured by ultimate success of farm output. Adapted to weather conditions, worked alone for extended periods of time, and withstood repetitive physical labor.